55th Annual Fine Arts Show

Dhahran Art Group (DAG) will hold its 55th annual fine arts show on October 7 & 8, 2010 at Ad Diwan, Dhahran.

This show will exhibit artwork from over 80 Saudi Aramco community artists, many of whom have exhibited internationally and across Saudi Arabia.

Included in the show are 28 categories of artwork that include oil paintings, watercolors, pottery, wood carving, weaving and others in a wide range of artistic styles and media. The artwork is available for sale and you will also have an opportunity to meet the artists.

Come in and see the show where over 500 pieces of artwork will be on display. I think you will enjoy it, I know the artists will enjoy having you come and visit.

Any artwork you purchase can be picked up between 5PM and 6PM on Friday, October 8 at the show location.
